DEVIATION - Section IV. of the 2021 Child Support Guidelines

The guidelines are applicable in this case. The amount of the child support order that would result from the application of the guidelines is $ _____ ☐ Weekly ☐ Bi-weekly ☐ Monthly ☐ Other(specify)

However, the Court finds the presumptiveness of the guidelines has been rebutted because, after considering the best interests of the child, the application of the guidelines would be unjust or inappropriate.

The specific circumstance of the case which justify departure from the guidelines are:

☐ the parties agree and the Court has reviewed and approved their agreement dated _____

☐ The payor is required to pay more than 40% of the payor's available income for a current child support order

☐ a child has ongoing special needs or aptitudes with financial consequences

☐ a child has ongoing extraordinary mental, physical, or developmental needs with financial consequences

☐ a parent _____ has ongoing extraordinary mental, physical, or developmental needs with financial consequences
Name

☐ a parent _____ has extraordinary expenses for health care coverage
Name

☐ a parent _____ has extraordinary travel or other expenses related to parenting time
Name

☐ a parent _____ has extraordinary child care costs for the children covered by this order
Name

☐ a parent _____ provides substantially less than one-third of the parenting time for the child or children
Name

☐ the payor is incarcerated and has insufficient financial resources to pay support

☐ application of the guidelines, particularly in low income cases, leaves a parent _____ without the ability to self support

☐ application of the guidelines would result in a gross disparity in the standard of living between the two households such that one household is left with an unreasonably low percentage of the combined available income

☐ application of the guidelines may adversely impact reunification of a parent and child where the child has been temporarily removed from the household in accordance with G. L. c. 119

☐ absent deviation, application of the guidelines would lead to an order that is unjust, inappropriate or not in the best interests of the child, considering the Principles of the 2021 Child Support Guidelines

☐ this is a modification of an order that deviated from the guidelines at the time it entered and the facts that gave rise to the deviation still exists, deviation continues to be in the child's best interest, and the guidelines amount would be unjust or inappropriate under the circumstances
